PRINCE ALBERT, DEC. 23, 1902

A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

The year of grace one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two is now rapidly drawing to a close and, according to the usual custom which prevails at this festive season, we begin to wish ourselves a very happy new year. Many things have happened since we had the pleasure of expressing this wish before, and many more will happen before the same wish is expressed again. This is perhaps a truism, but it is a truism that is important to us as transitory mortals to live in mind, upon such occasions as this, the transitory nature of time. Time has got a way of passing onwards so slowly, and we can't help it; and we have got a way of happening in time, and so the world drags on and we become one year older every time that we wish one another "a happy new year."

What fact doesn't know all that already? Very true, my friend, but it is sometimes a good thing for wise men and fools to be reminded of things or events which they may know perfectly well. And so we remind ourselves that "time is of the wing." Are we growing as rapidly as time grows? The citizens of Prince Albert solemnly admit that the town is growing in population in proportion to the passing year, and people in the surrounding country are very much of the same mind. And yet, during the past year, both town and country have grown, especially the latter. The wave of advancing population has fairly commenced to flow in our direction; and we have every reason to hope that the year '93 will see a larger addition to our community than any preceding year.

Some, who were here this time last year, have even it to be their interest to take their departure during the year. Not many, however; but their absence has been felt as a loss. We cannot afford to lose valued citizens. Our musical talent, especially, has been seriously reduced within the past year, and it now with considerable difficulty that a pre-eminently entertainment can be provided. A small number have gone to the ranks of "the great majority" and their bereaved friends are left to mourn their loss.

Yet there is reason to be joyful. We are gradually working out our destiny, and we have confidence that our destiny will, some day, be a fair if not a brilliant one. Some day, but when we cannot say, Prince Albert will be an important railway centre, and therefore a centre of other important interests. Every year is bringing us nearer to this desired consummation; nearer to the great object of our hopes. Time is hard now, but it is about just their worst, and must improve; therefore, let us look forward with hopeful confidence.

To all our readers, young and old, rich and poor, grave and gay, we say again, and we say it with sincere wish, in our editorial heart "a happy new year." May your shadows never grow less! May town and country go hand in hand on the high road to prosperity! May the year '93 be signalized by great and solid progress in our community! May our lads and lasses, matrimonially inclined, realize the objects of their desires! May there be brightness and joy in every household in our country. And, please don't forget to subscribe to THE SASKATCHEWAN TIMES.

The authorities of the United States mint claim that since 1879, when gold was discovered in the Republic, $741,000,000 worth of the precious metal has completely disappeared. The total production in that time has been $1,400,000,000 and after balancing exports and imports since that time there now remains $1,431,000,000 worth in the country. But the Government returns show only $689,000,000 in sight, including the gold used by jewellers etc. Perhaps it was smuggled into Canada and sold away during the prosperous times when the civil war was going on.

OPENING of the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, Prince Albert.

Christmas Eve witnessed an event which cannot fail to be of interest to the people of the settlement. Last night, always so religiously commemorated by the celebration of Midnight Mass, was rendered doubly solemn by the opening of the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart.

Between 11 and 12 o'clock a large congregation assembled, and at the solemn sound of midnight the clergy and choir went in procession to the entrance of the church to meet His Lordship Bishop Parnell, who then entered the Cathedral seated in his pastoral robes in the beautiful strains of "Adagio Cantata" filled the spacious building. His Lordship then ascended the altar, where he officiated solemnly, the Rev. Father Blair and various singing societies and choruses.

A sermon, suited to the occasion, was delivered by Rev. Father Blair, in the course of which he made a most eloquent and fervent appeal to the devotion and loyalty of the congregation and of the people of Prince Albert in helping to erect this sacred edifice.

"Winter Mass" and the "Pastors of Lambs" were also sung, and were well rendered by the choir, to whom great credit is due especially to Mrs. (Judge) McGowan, Mr. E. Thomson, Mr. Schmitt and Mr. St. Denis, all of whom manifested devotedness worthy of the occasion.

A GREAT ALMANAC.

The Star Almanac of Montreal is just out. It's a splendid thing. Everybody should have it, if they can possibly get it. It is being sent abroad in large numbers.

CANNOT BE DENIED.

The curative influence of the pine in lung diseases is everywhere admitted, and when combined with other effective pulmonary remedies as in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup the effect is doubly beneficial. No case of cough, cold, asthma, bronchitis or pneumonia can resist the healing powers of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. 25 and 50c. at druggists.

1903, "The Crown of the Havana" cap.

"La Corona" and "La Flora" brand of cigars are undoubtedly superior in quality and considerably lower in price than any brand imported. Rejected smokers will not regret this to be the case. The consumers know it. S. Davis & Sons, Montreal.

RED DEER HILL.

A number of parties around here have had the misfortune to lose some horses. A. Inkster, Geo. Glastier and John Watson.

The roads are almost impassable, except where travelled every day. We have the deepest snow this season of any time in the experience of the "oldest settler."

Messrs. Sullivan, Glastier, Boylan, and Gies have been busy hauling hay home for the last two weeks and are not yet through.

Horses that are running out are not doing so well as in former winters, owing to the unusual severity of the weather, as well as the great depth of snow.

Foxes are also numerous than they have been for some time. Several of them have been trapped.

Rita, Headrick and family returned one last week and say there is no place like the Hill.

Farmers here are still holding the large bulk of their grain in hopes of better prices. Although some have been marketed, it is really only a small percentage of the crop. Coarse grain is being fed largely to stock.

Mrs. M. Freeman, who has been somewhat poorly for some time, is now recovering her usual health.

James English starts for the lumber wood this week.

We have been informed that rabbits are again appearing in great numbers in the timbered lands to the south of the Hill. It is now eight years since they were so numerous.

Monday, Dec. 23rd, was quietly celebrated as Xmas.

Mr. Riley is again returning on this side of the Hill.

Dan Sullivan has been in poor health for the past week.

As the time again comes around for the taxpayers annual meeting, they are again indulging in talk of building a new School House, as now has been the case for the past two years. Certainly a new school building is very much needed, although in the present unsettled state of the district it is a somewhat doubtful piece of work to incur any large expenditure in building, until we have some assurance that our district will not be again attacked and more territory taken from it to form new districts, as has already been done on two occasions.

"Tales from Town Topics," Great Holiday Number (3) is just out. This quarterly publication has been improved permanently in size, and will henceforth contain, in addition to an extra amount of selected matter, an original prize novelette of from 25,000 to 50,000 words in length. The first of these appears in the present number. It is a story of New York and London life, and is entitled "The Sale of a Soul." This, with the bright stories and poems selected from Town Topics, makes a decidedly interesting book. Town Topics, 210 West Twenty-third street, New York.

SUBSTITUTION.

It is universally conceded that when a manufactured article has been a standard and staple for many years among the trade the profit thereon through competition runs down to almost a cash discount, of which there are comparatively few who can avail themselves; therefore other brand than those that are standard and staple are substituted in their stead, upon which their considerable margin. Competition has increased to such an enormous extent among wholesalers and retailers that a great many of them consider it necessary and advisable to substitute other brands that seemingly produce large profits. Some are of the opinion that by so doing they benefit thereby. Others prefer to handle standard and staple lines, upon which, although the profit is small, the turn over is much greater, and in the aggregate, much larger; not taking into consideration the fact that it was much easier and less expensive, and more satisfactory to sell staple lines than those that are unknown. The consumer unfortunately does not understand that when he requires for a certain class of goods and is informed that they "have gone in stock," or "are just out," or "we don't handle them" (which are remarks frequently made by the dealers), that their object is to push articles that pay a larger profit. To the thinking public it is obvious that the consumer is a loser thereby, and that in order that he should get the best value obtainable for his money, he should insist upon having standard and staple lines. It is a well known and indisputable fact that the celebrated brand of cigars "La Corona," "La Corona" (manufactured from the cream of the Havana crop), "El Padre," "Madre & Hijo," "Cable Extra," (our new line), "El Kicker," and "Mango" are standard and staple goods and are manufactured under conditions which for the production of a first class article in every respect are unequalled. Therefore it behooves them, for their own sake to insist upon having these brands; thereby insuring for them a reliable smoke, and full value for their money. The cry that is repeatedly heard "that it is difficult to obtain a good cigar" will be unnecessary and uncalled for if they insist upon having the brand mentioned. For nearly half a century we have endeavored to place before the public the best value obtainable consistent with the prices charged; and it is well known that our goods are staple and reliable, and that the demand for same is increasing. We therefore respectfully beg to state that our goods are required for, and the unsavory remarks mentioned are given, we will upon application to us deliver, in small or large quantities, any of our brands that are desired. Our goods are better than ever. Our aim has always been to produce nothing but fine goods, which the public have shown their appreciation of by the enormous quantities that are sold annually. We aim to protect the consumer as well as the dealer, and by his enquiring for our own goods, he protects himself.
